Saint Lucie by the choir of the Swedish Church in Paris under the direction of Björn Åkerhage

Sebastian Gibrand, Swedish silver medalist Bocuse d'Or, native of Helsingborg, has been part of the Swedish Culinary Team since 2013. He surprised everyone by taking the second place on the podium at the Bocuse d'Or 2019. Sebastian Gibrand has specially composed the menu for this evening. In partnership with Electrolux, we are pleased to welcome him to Paris.

TEAM SWEDEN
BOCUSE D'OR
2019

The Prix d'Excellence is an annual award that aims to recognize innovative French-Swedish companies for their outstanding performances on the French market.

Cirkus Cirkör is a Swedish contemporary circus company, renowned for its enormous creativity, that pushes the limits of the impossible. Their breathtaking and innovating performances push the physical limits and create transboundary art pieces. It all started when Tilde Björfors and some artists went to Paris and fell in love with the possibilities that the contemporary circus offered. They decided to stop dreaming big and living small and instead give their all to live out their dreams. The name Cirkör is a play on the French words 'Cirque' and 'Coeur', circus and heart, and the company has played an important role behind today's recognition of contemporary circus as an art form in Sweden.

Celebrated on the 13th of December, the longest night according to the old Julian calendar, Saint Lucie's Day is a religious event coinciding with the return of light after the Winter Solstice. Since 1927, the Swedes have adopted and made a tradition of Saint Lucie as we know it today, with a young lady dressed in a simple white dress, wearing a crown of candles. She leads a procession of followers, also dressed in simple white dresses and sings the light in the winter darkness. The choir of the Swedish Church in Paris, under the direction of Björn Åkerhage, will give an exclusive Lucia experience during the evening.

You are cordially invited to share this unforgettable evening with us,

Gita Paterson
President
Swedish Chamber of Commerce in France
